Monroe, WI—In 1977, St. Clare Hospital initiated its closed-circuit TV system, or CCTV. The first broadcast was a Mass including (from left) Gary Krahenbuhl (now Fr. Gary Krahenbuhl) as commentator, Jim Mayer as acolyte, Bishop Cletus O'Donnell and Fr. Thomas Campion. Broadcasts on the hospital's CCTV included regular Masses, as well as various health, hospital and children's programming.

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

A blessed and happy summer season to you all! I love the warmth, the beauty of creation, the flowers, and lush greenery of the countryside, plus a bit "softer" pace of work at the parish. As I write this, though, I realize how quickly the days are passing.

Certainly a joyous reality in this mid-July time is thinking about, and planning, for our Annual Day at the Dells. Tommy Diehl and the staff of the Tommy Bartlett Water & Stage Show are again inviting us for this special gathering, on Friday, August 21, 2015, now in its 36th year. Details for registering for the day are found in this Newsletter, so please register as soon as possible.

The Bartlett Staff and the many Volunteers of the Apostolate look forward to welcoming some 800 guests this year. That means YOU!

Pre-registration is important and helps our planning so do so right away, please. And, tell your family and friends. There is no cost to you, or anyone who might accompany you. Again this year, we will begin with celebrating Mass, have a bag-lunch, and then enjoy the Bartlett Show!

God bless you, and I can't wait to greet you personally on August 21st!

Fr. Larry Bakke, Director

Day at the Dells.

Tom Diehl and his staff are again graciously hosting this annual event at the Tommy Bartlett Water Show.

The day begins with Mass in the outdoor theatre at 11:00 a.m. Immediately following Mass, a sack lunch is provided for all guests. After lunch, we will have live entertainment that will keep you on the edge of your seat. The Tommy Bartlett Show is full of thrills and excitement. One of the Midwest's most-loved family shows revs up the action as the celebrated Tommy Bartlett water ski team struts its stuff on Lake Delton

If you need assistance with medications, eating or in the restroom, please bring an attendant with you. Please fill out the registration form above. Be sure to mail it in by Friday, August 7.
